THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO. | ATLANTA, GEORGIA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1870. | VOLUME III---NUMBER 25

Evening Edition.

Atlanta, Georgia, July 19, 1870.

A Mammoth Weekly.

The Nashville Union and American comes to us in mammoth proportions. It contains twelve pages ordinary newspaper size, making in all seventy-two columns, and is published at the low price of two dollars per annum.

It was A. J. Fletcher, late Secretary of State of Tennessee, died at his home near Cleave[illegible] of congestion of the liver and brain, on the 16th instant. He was an Union man during the war. In 1865, he was elected Secretary of State. He early took a stand against the narrow and contracted policy of the Brownlow regime. He favored the election of Senter in 1869, but after the consitutional convention had done its work of enfranchising all the people of the State, and provided for the election anew of State officers, he joined the Stokes and Maynard clique, and sought to have the State remanded to military rule. He is said to have been a kind neighbor and a devoted husband and father.

Hon. A. B. Longstrett is Dead.

We regret that a notice of the death of Hon. A. B. Longstreet, prepared for yesterday's issue, was crowded out. Though he had attained to four score years of life, the news of his death comes to his numerous friends and admirers, alas! too soon. He died at his residence at Oxford, Mississippi, on the 9th instant, closing a long life of continuous and uninterrupted usefulness. Though a venerable representative of a past generation, the associations his name always called up gave to the character of Judge Longstreet an youthfulness that rendered him as great a favorite with the present generation, as he was with the companions of his youth and vigorous manhood, by whom he was almost idolized.

He was not (as too often the aged permit themselves to become) "the wreck of a past age drifted upon the present." At every step of his honorable career he was an active, useful citizen. Well educated by the various and varied experiences of a career of great mental activity, he was ever ready and competent to meet the responsibilities of the current moment. Hence the secret of his continued and uninterrupted popularity to the end of his earthly days. He was one of Georgia's sons of whom every Georgian is justly proud. Amid the mourning for the departure of a great and good one of earth, the virtues which rendered Judge Longstreet's presence joyful to all, who came in contact with him, suggest the cheering consideration, that his passage through the "dark valley of the shadow of death" was illuminated by the Christian's well-founded hope.

Klucking--Ku-klux in the Georgia Senate.

Resolutions of condolence with the family of Senator Joseph Adkins, who was killed by some party or parties unknown on the 10th day of May, 1869, were unanimously passed in the Senate on yesterday, and thereupon the Senate adjourned in respect to his memory, as is usual and proper upon like occasions.

There were in the speeches of Campbell (15th amendment) and Mr. Brock, made in advocacy of the resolutions, expressions which give rise to a suspicion that they were more desirous of making political capital out of the manner of Mr. Adkins' death, even at this late day, than to extend to the family of the deceased genuine and heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. Adkins met a violent death at the hands of a party or parties unknown. It is understood that some of his family profess to know the guilty party or parties who murdered him. The grand jury of the county show a willingness to investigate. The court is willing to try any one indicted as his murderer. The people, as well as the military, will see that the parties proven to be guilty, after a fair trial, are punished. Yet no one has been arraigned, and all efforts to discover the murderer or murderers of Mr. Adkins have failed.

Now, after more than a year has elapsed without a jot or tittle of evidence to prove it, it is simply ridiculous, to use no harsher term, to assert or insinuate that Mr. Adkins was murdered for his political opinions. Can party necessity or party strategy justify the thrusting of such an insinuation upon the attention of even the most rabid and ignorant of greedy and disappointed Radicals upon an occasion of so solemn a character as the one referred to? The people of Georgia, and especially those who are Democrats, can congratulate themselves upon such evidences of party desperation as were perceptible in the utterances of the two Radicals above named, for such utterances can only be accounted for upon the supposition that they are partially demented with rage, provoked by the recent action of Congress on the Georgia bill. The murder of Mr. Adkins more than a year ago was heralded as a Ku-klux outrage. It is the latest event of the kind that has been recorded in Georgia.

LETTER FROM OXFORD.

Commencement—Sunday, Sermon by Bishop Wightman—Monday, Sophomore Prize Declamation—Oration before the Alumni by W. H. Potter—Great Success up to this Time.

It's a very great pity that some one is not paid to tell the people of the many fine things to be seen and heard here at commencement; for we have been actually surfeited, stuffed, crammed, with the nicest titbits of the great intellectual mammoth. After a short and very pleasant ride, we arrived here Sunday afternoon, and after being escorted through the pleasant village of Oxford, found a home in the most pleasant part of the town, somewhere on the suburbs. But as we ourselves are greatly interested in educational, and political, and moral philosophy, we inferred that the Oxfordians kept the town small, as best suited the serene quietude and want of excitement and essential conveniences so necessary to the cultivation of the mind. A fine idea that, to coop vigorous young minds in a small village, to learn in quiet, as if the very climax of adaptability were not reached where active, busy, city life is combined with collegiate instruction. But nowhere in Georgia (and Georgia is still the empire State) can more pleasant, genial and hospitable citizens be found. They think of nothing but what will be for the enjoyment of their guests, and right well do they succeed; for the rich cordiality of the hosts is well endorsed by all that a hungry student or a gouty Epicurean could desire. And the ladies, God bless 'em, are as sweet, and pretty, and entertaining as the men are noble and generous. Long live Oxford! May she grow till her streets are paved with gold.

Bishop Wightman, of South Carolina, delivered the commencement sermon yesterday. The effort was quite successful, and the careful attention which his large audience paid him, was a fit tribute to the chasteness and eloquence of the address. He is a very logical reasoner; but he was very careful to avoid being apparently deep, by using those habitual standbys, such as hence, therefore, now, etc. His sermon will compare favorably, we imagine, with any ever spoken in the chapel.

Yesterday afternoon Rev. Dr. Pierce, who is now over 80 years of age, preached in the village church. He claims it as his privilege, because he says, "it seems to have been, by sound passive consent, bestowed upon me." It would surprise you to know how active his mind is now in his extreme old age, and he reasons with the continuity of Fitche.

The sophomores declaimed this morning. We were peculiarly struck with the dignity of their selections, nearly all of them being extracts from speeches, delivered upon political occasions. Messrs. Hines, La Prade, Mosely and Williams, distinguished themselves, especially the last gentleman. The prizes will be declared to-morrow.

Rev. W. H. Potter addressed the Alumni upon the "New Science." We would have liked the oration more, had he refrained from instituting a comparison between love for science and "that well-nigh illicit affection which old maids bestow upon canary birds and poodle dogs." Of course the applauded, but the sentiments were too vulgar to be addressed to a cultivated audience upon an occasion like this; and when ministers of the Gospel revert with a sneer to the unfortunate condition of unmarried women, who can conceived the limit to which our meanness will reach. Fie! for a man to create sensation upon such a theme, and that, too, in the South! No wonder if our women grow discontented! But let them not fear; the rising generation of Southern men will know how to appreciate noble women. Otherwise the oration was learned, but not clear nor lucid. More again.

Yours, FITZ.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

The Senate was called to order by the President.

Mr. Candler opposed the resolution in his earnest manner.

Mr. Dunning made one of the best speeches of the session in opposition to the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Wooten moved to postpone the whole subject of relief indefinitely, which was seconded by Mr. Speer.

Mr. Harris said that the relief clause was stricken out of the Constitution by Congress, not because it was unconstitutional, but because they were asked to do so by a few note shavers, and it was a matter for Georgia to control.

Mr. Harris moved to lay on the table for the present. Lost.

Mr. Merrell advocated indefinite postponement.

Mr. Nunnally again advocated relief.

Mr. Brock opposed indefinite postponement.

☞ In another column will be seen the advertisement of the terms of THE ATLANTA DAILY CONSTITUTION, published by the very clever firm of W. A. Hemphill & Co. This is one of the very ablest and most reliable papers in Georgia, or even in the State.

The faithful and energetic way in which it has fought and exposed the corruptions of the present State government, should endear THE CONSTITUTION to every true Georgian.

That its terrible blows in this respect are highly appreciated, is proven by the immense popularity of that journal. Long may it wave.—Covington Examiner.

A LADY'S AGE.—In an English libel case reported in the London Daily News, the plaintiff being on the stage, the following passage occurred:

How old is Lady Gambier?—I am fraid she would not like that question put to her.

The Lord Chief Justice—That is the very reason why it is put now—Then I will not answer it.

Is she older or younger than you?—Much older.

The Solicitor General—How old are you? I do not choose to answer.

I am afraid I must ask. Are you 70?—Make me 100, if you please, but I am not going to answer. (A laugh.)

I would make you 20 years younger if I could. I will tell you my age if you like. I don't want to know. (Laughter.)

I really must ask your age—The English law does not force me, I believe, to answer such a question. (Loud laughter.)

Is your aunt about 80?—She may be.

In answer to a suggestion that she should write down her age and hand it to the jury, who alone would see it, she said she would rather not; and at length the question was not further pressed.

☞ A story is told of a Parisian lady who preserves her beauty by plastering strawberries over her face every night and washing them off in the morning. The fair creature has for some time past been annoyed by a troublesome creditor. The other day he called before her beautyship had risen, and insisted on forcing his way into her bed-room to demand instant payment. But fools rush in where angels fear to tread. He had no sooner got into the room than his fair creditor cried out: "My dear Mr. Dun, how could you be so imprudent as to approach a person suffering from small-pox? Look at my poor face!" The creditor gave a shriek, darted out of the room, and has not since been heard of.

GENERAL LEE AT SARATOGA.—General Robert E. Lee arrived and took possession of the handsome suite of rooms reserved for him at the Union. There was much curiosity to see him, but he remained quietly in his apartments, resting from the fatigue of travel. The evening train brought up another immense throng of pleasure-seekers, and the following well-known New Yorkers registered at the Union: A. B. Morgan, Henry A. Smythe, Mathew Brennan, Miles Beach, Colonel F. Morris, A. J. Rogers and W. H. Harbeck. The Clarendon, Columbian, Marion, American, and other well-known hotels are fast filling up, and before the close of the week there will hardly be a room vacant in any of them.

☞ The Hon. Hiram Appleton, of Mystic, Connecticut, recently forwarded a letter to a neighboring town, requesting the postmaster to deliver it "to any respectable attorney." After ten days it was returned with the significant endorsement, "None here."

☞ The practice of Kentucky distillery hands, of bathing after working hours in the vats of whisky, not only refreshes and cleanses the men, but adds to the "body" of the liquor.

"BAD BLOOD."

"The Life is the Blood."

FROM it we derive our strength, beauty, and mental capabilities. It is the centre of our being, around which revolves all that makes existence happy. When this source is corrupted the painful effects are visible in many shapes, prominent among which is

SCROFULA.

This is a taint or infection of the human organism, and probably no one is wholly free from it. It exhibits itself in various shapes—as Ulcers and Sores, Decayed Bones, Diseased Scalp, Sore Eyes, Weak and Diseased Joints, St. Vitus' Dance, Foul Discharges from the Nostrils, Eruptions, Glandular Swellings, Throat Affections, Rheumatism, Heart Affections, Nervous Disorders, Barrenness, Disorders of the Womb, Dropsy, Syphilitic Affeions, Liver Complaint, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Neuralgia, Loss of Manhood and General Debility.

It has been the custom to treat these diseases with Mercury and other Mineral substances, which, though sometimes producing a cure, often prove injurious and entails misery in after life. The long known injurious properties of those so called alteratives and puriflers has led the philanthropical man of science to explore the arena of nature, the result of which has been the discovery of a vegetable product which possess the power of eradicating these Taints from the Blood.

LIVER MEDICINE

A SAFE and certain cure for all kinds of Liver Complaints, and all diseases and indispositions that originate from a diseased state or inactivity of the Liver, such as

Chronic and Acute Inflammations of the Liver,
Dyspepsia, Sick Headache,
Sourness of the Stomach,
Loss of Appetite,
Lowliness of Spirits, Colic,
Costiveness, Fever, Ague,
Billious Fever, Dropsy and Jaundice.

These Medicines are purely Vegetable, and perfectly harmless; but their efficacy is too permanently established in all the Southern and Western States to require any further recommendations. The wise will not fail to give them a fair trial—this is all that is asked.

LAGRANGE, GA., DEC. 3, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER, West Point, Ga. Gentlemen: Having witnessed almost daily, for the last fifteen years, the great efficacy of the preparation you are now putting up, known as "Abbett's Medicine," it affords me pleasure to state that I know of no combinations or preparation equal to it in the treatment of Liver Diseases of whatever character, and would cordially recommend it to all who are suffering from derangement of the Liver, and especially the Dyspeptic.

I am, very respectfully,
T. S. BRADFIELD, Druggist.

WEST POINT, GA., OCT. 15, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER: Gentlemen—I can honestly and confidently recommend L. B. Abbett's Liver or Dyspeptic Medicine, as prepared by you, to the favorable notice of the suffering public. Having used this Medicine myself in my family for twenty years, I can highly recommend it for removing pain or flatulency from the stomach, caused by indigestion. It also has a happy effect in removing constipation of the bowels. I believe it to be the best universal remedy the world has yet discovered for the above named diseases. With my best wishes to you in introducing this valuable Medicine to the public, I remain, Yours, truly, A. K. KENDRICK.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INS. Co.

—NEW YORK—

The Original Joint-Stock Life Ins. Co. of the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the Insurance of first class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum insured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium with a promised dividend, which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $220 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the UNIVERSAL, the sum of $11,731, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,454—difference, immediately secured, in favor of the UNIVERSAL, $3,277.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent. payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan the full value in insurance of the premium paid, is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE PREMIUMS

charged by the Universal are as low as the actual experience of insured life in this country will justify, and on the ordinary Life and Ten-Year Non-forfeiture policies are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the majority of Mutual Companies.

Special attention is asked to our "Return Premium Plan," by which the amount of the policy is secured simply by the temporary deposit of the annual premiums, which are returned in full, together with the amount assured, to the holder of the policy when it shall become a claim upon the Company. Also to the

"REDUCTION OF PREMIUM PLAN,"

by which a reduction of one-third is made in the premium after the first annual payment, being, in fact, equivalent to a dividend of 33⅓ per cent. A clause is inserted in the policies issued by the "Universal," in which these results are distinctly specified and guaranteed.

Morning Edition.

Atlanta, Georgia, July 20, 1870.

To Correspondents.

We invite correspondence from all parts of the State about the crops, and local incidents, but we would urge upon our friends to give us the facts in a concise manner, and to WRITE ON ONLY ONE SIDE OF THE SHEET. Please observe this.

The Cheapest Paper in the State.

On and after this date, the price of THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION will be $2 per year, instead of $3 as heretofore. Send in your subscriptions at once, if you wish the best paper in the State for the money. The moderate sum of $2 will secure THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION for one year, which is worth more than the money!

Our exchanges, who have copied our prospectus, will confer a favor upon us by making the above alteration. tf

Railroad Favors.

We return thanks to President William Johnson, of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, for favors for the year 1870.

☞ Some of the journals of Georgia, claiming to be Democratic, that are the recipients of fat jobs in the printing line from the Bullock faction, say that the Legislature has the right to decide whether we will have an election for Assemblymen this fall, in face of the plain reading of the text of the Georgia bill as passed by Congress.

In for the Campaign.

As it is now a foregone conclusion that we will have an election for Assemblymen this fall, THE CONSTITUTION has entered upon the campaign on the side of the people against the corrupt faction in power. We advise our friends everywhere to send in their names for our daily and weekly at an early day, if they wish to keep posted upon the issues and the events of the campaign.

We suggest that the people, through their representatives, chosen in primary meetings assembled in council at the Capital, some time about the middle of August, just before or after or while the State Agricultural Convention is in session, to consult upon the situation and prepare for harmonious and united action. "A long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether," and Georgia will again be free.

Kimball's Opera House.

After a careful reading of the report of the Investigating Committees in the case of Treasurer Angier against Governor Bullock, it is an act of simple justice to state that there is no evidence that, in the remotest degree, implies any corruption on the part of Mr. H. I. Kimball in his negotiations and settlements with the Governor for fitting up and preparing his Opera House for use as a State House. The Committee say: "We have examined the original accounts," (of the contractor,) "and find that all the articles charged for have been furnished and have been used by the State for eighteen months; and that the bills have all been receipted by the parties from whom the articles were purchased. The prices charged seemed reasonable, and the accounts amount in the aggregate to the sum of $73,373 98."

The original contract was $73,000, of which $18,000 are yet unpaid. We voluntarily and cheerfully make the above statement as due to a public spirited gentleman, whose name has necessarily been often mentioned in discussing Governor Bullock's malfeasances, and no doubt to his (Mr. K.'s) prejudice in the minds of parties not acquainted with the facts.

Reports of the Investigating Committees.

We have before us the report of the committees appointed to investigate the charges of the Treasurer, Dr. N. L. Angier, against Governor Bullock, and those of Governor Bullock against Dr. Angier, also the report of the committee to enquire into the management of the State Road.

It is impossible, in the columns of a daily journal, at one time, to place before the public all the evidence elicited in these investigations. It is devoutly to be wished that every intelligent voter in the State could be furnished with a copy of them, and would attentively read them. No one can read them dispassionately without concluding that the government of the State of Georgia has been under the control of as graceless a set of politicial adventurers and as unscrupulous a flock of harpies as ever made a raid upon a defenseless people or preyed upon their substance.

Tracking step by step

that swarmed in and about the alleys and avenues to the public cribs, the evidence forces the impartial mind to the conclusion that there has been an unnecessary waste of public money, and an improper and dishonest use made of it in furthering party schemes and insuring the success of partisan and factious measures.

It is proven beyond a doubt that Governor Bullock did, (contrary to the law made provided for the regulating of the disbursement of the public funds,) draw from

THE FOURTH NATIONAL BANK OF NEW YORK

$55,000.

$54,500 of which he paid for heating, lighting and furnishing the "Opera House" for State House purposes. Of this sum the Governor acknowledges himself still indebted for $500 advanced to H. P. Farrow.

THE GOVERNOR'S INCOMPETENCY

as an administrative officer is proven in this, that he hypothecated and sold $265,000 of the 7 per cent. mortgage bonds of this State in violation of the act of December 13, 1866, page 16 of acts, 1866. Though in this instance he was enabled to prove that the proceeds "were passed to the credit of the State, and have been used by the State," is certain that he violated the letter of the law providing for the issuing of said bonds.

His incompetency as a guardian of the interests of the people is clearly proven. He was elected by the people to execute, and cause to be executed, the laws of the State. Whether the folly or the knavery of a public officer, is the more criminal, we leave the people to decide in the case of an officer on whose judgment so many interests depend. We opine that they will discover, after reading the reports referred to, that the Governor's folly has cost them very large sums of money.

AS A POLITICAL TRICKSTER,

he has shown his want of tact and acumen, in expending, improperly and illegally, more than $45,000 of the "printing fund," for printing or advertising his proclamations, orders, etc., in violation of section 1043 of the Code of Georgia.

Notwithstanding a clause in the appropriation act of 1869, provides "that the sum of $1,800 be appropriated to each of the secretaries of the Executive Department, not exceeding two for the year 1869, and that neither of said secretaries shall receive any compensation for extra services, and that his Excellency, the Governor, be authorized to employ such additional assistance as he may deem necessary at any time not to exceed one," the proof shows that SIX CLERKS in addition to the two secretaries, have been employed continuously until a recent date, during Governor Bullock's administration—five in excess of those authorized by law. To these extra clerks over $17,000 have been paid.

The facility with which our Governor construes statutes to answer his own purposes is shown most glaringly in his illegal drafts, on the 22d section of the Appropriation Act of 1869, and 7th section of the Appropriation Act of 1868, to pay in part these very extra clerks' hire, and for other purposes, amounting to the enormous sum of $185,000 in a little over one year.

And what a financier is that Governor of ours! If he cannot get money lawfully from the Treasury of the State, he knows he can get it unlawfully from

THE STATE ROAD.

That institution seems to be convenient for many partisan uses. Of its funds, $5,250 were advanced to those numerous "writing masters" in the Executive Department who hover around his Excellency; $2,850 were advanced to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in a case of necessity, and Varney A. Gaskill, the irrepressible, the everywhere present, the always notorious, the pardoned tempter whose dalliance caused Treasurer Angier to bite at a tempting bait, got a cool $1,000 advanced to him!

Oh! law abiding Governor, most learned and wise interpreter of the laws he is sworn to support! Oh! most accommodating State Road Treasurer that was, but that Superintendent thereof now is! What a pair of brothers! whose mutual love tempts them to violate their oaths of office.

That Executive Department over which Governor Bullock presides is

A PRINCELY AFFAIR.

Its luxurious furnishings, its handsome and well preserved attaches and clerks, the dolce far-niente style of everything appertaining thereto and thereabouts, form a curiosity shop that would dazzle the eyes of the hardfisted people of Georgia, could they but behold it. But there are therein and thereabouts things invisible to mortal eyes that must have been hugely enjoyed. They cost enough, and are all the more valuable for that to the taxpayers, though they may never see them. There is charm that distance lends to persons. There is a mystery always enveloping those nonsentities that cannot be named or seen. Incidentals! What are they? What becomes of them? are questions the people of Georgia will naturally ask when they learn that Governor Bullock drew $11,000 of the contingent fund of the State in paying for

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES,

$2,000 of this money was paid for printing accounts that had never been audited, and for which no warrant had been issued; $200 were paid upon the board bill of one Chap. Norris, a man no way connected with the Executive Department; $400 of this fund were placed in the hands of R. P. Lester, one of the Executive secretaries, and no sufficient explanation of its disbursement was furnished the committee. Several of the accounts paid out of this fund were twice paid—once by the financial agent, and again by the treasurer on warrant. Some accounts, for which the parties still hold warrants on the treasury for the same debt, have been paid by the Governor's financial agent. The balance of this fund remaining on hand was at first reported to the committee as a little over $2,000. Upon close examination they found the cash on hand and the amounts due the fund make about $4,400; a large discrepency in examining vouchers, considering that the Governor has on his staff a financial secretary, for whose unskillfulness the State has paid a handsome salary.

And then those

ATTORNEY'S FEES.

The Governor has, as is well known, been very lavish in the expenditure of money for legal counsel. Fees amounting, in the aggregate, to $1,550, were paid to George S. Thomas, Esq., "for services before the military commission convened by General Terry in contesting the eligibility of certain persons to seats in the House of Representatives and Senate of the Legislature of Georgia cannot be justified by any principle known to the law of this State.

He paid $250 to each of two attorneys for legal services in a quo warranto case in which neither the State nor the Governor could have any interest except for partisan purposes. It was the case of Butt against Spencer to remove the latter from the office of Justice of the Peace in the 1026th militia district.

The above and many other facts were proven before the committee in this case of Angier against Bullock. Our limited space forbids us to extract more to-day. The case of Bullock against Angier will receive attention soon. So too the report of the committee having in charge the investigation of the management of the "State Road." As it is a foregone conclusion that we are to have it would be well for our friends to preserve the above for reference as well as copies of the reports referred wherever they come into their possession.

The faction under the lead of Bullock Blodgett & Co., are determined to spare no pains or expense to prolong their grip upon the government of the State of Georgia, and the management of the State Road, even if the ballot and not the bayonet is to decide the question of their continuance in office. Let all true Georgians arm themselves with the facts and the truth and be ready to meet sophistries and misstatements, come from what quarter they may, and November's ides will record their redemption from a condition of servitude to wicked unsrupulous political mountebanks that in the night of political confusion have cheated us of our liberties and robbed us of our sacred franchises.

Old Political Topers.

Political debauchees, who have let down in public influence sometimes become very repentant. The grave error they often commit is in playing shy of old acquaintances, whom they fear to look upon them disdainfully. Maddened by this consideration, and, unwilling to take a subordinate position on probation, they frequently assume an attitude of defiance. Their worst passions are aroused. The devil persuades them they have not done anything so very wrong, and that they and their opinions are as much entitled to respect as ever. Having sobered, they would have the world believe that they have never been drunk at all. They were always consistent in accepting the situation. When the crowd they happened to be in was on a big spree in the wild hunt after office and predatory loaves and fishes, they just went along to see the fun. They were not intoxicated—not they, indeed! True they did go through the gaps in the fences of the constitution, made by the scalawags and adventurers, who trampled under foot and destroyed the hard earnings of the toiling masses.

What if they did come off with some of the booty, does not everybody know that if they had not taken some of it others would have enjoyed it? They only did a smart thing, and had lots of fun in doing it, besides reaping much pecuniary profit therefrom.

Enervated and exhausted by their sport, they claim now to be very moderate in their desires and aims. Like all old topers, they have imagined everybody has been intoxicated except themselves. Like the poor inebriate that fell to the pavement, they swear there was an earthquake when they received the ugly bruises that now disfigure them. With intellects bemuddled by their long debauch, they claim that they have done nothing wrong. Their unsteady nerves, and bruised bones, and blackened eyes prove that they have at least been in bad company.

Unwilling to acknowledge that they have been on a debauch, they awake to the consciousness that they have been looking at somebody else drink. They think to reinstate themselves in the good opinion of their neighbors by taking the pledge. They become political temperance missionaries. They swear publicly never more to look upon the gold that glitters nor the greenbacks that maketh the heart glad, even if it is surreptitiously gobbled up when lying around about the public cribs.

They will not do so any more! (except upon the sly.) They have enjoyed that kind of life to satiety, and the publicity of their debauch has rather lowered them in the scale of respectability. They propose to form a total-abstinence society. They profess to be afraid of themselves. They must throw guards around their own actions. They judge others by themselves. They would have everybody to enter this political temperance society on the plea of feeling the temptation. These old sinners, knowing by experience the back ways and by ways through which they can reach tempting beverages, would keep others out of sight of the roads that lead to political degradation and death. They want more of the creature comfort—would enjoy a better and a cheaper article. If only they would direct and control that grand temperance army how quietly and easily they could enjoy themselves—in a horn!

Now, fool whom with your specious and transparent professions, you old political debauchees? Do not the people know where you are? Do they not see your legs notwithstanding that shade you have over your heads, all bloated and disfigured with the bumps and bruises you received in the wild riot, in which you have been engaged in for the last five years? No, do not be longer self-deceived. If you are truly repentant, own up! Enter upon that probation which the people demand of all such as you. Show fruits of genuine repentance before you attempt to lead others. Instead of impudently assuming to lead, modestly take an humble seat until you can prove that you justly deserve to be reinstated in the confidence of your fellow-citizens. Remember Jonah, whose protecting gourd flourished and withered in a night, much to his chagrin and mortification. How like him are some of our modern political temperance men, who, having known their duty, have tried to evade it! In fleeing from the path of duty, they involved others in a sea of political trouble. Cast out from among those who were thus imperiled, incarcerated in the belly of a party that spewed them out upon an unfriendly shore, while it has alarmed them, has not repressed or moderated their vanity. They prophecy and they prophecy, and their prophecies come not to pass. In their mortification at the utterances of the vox populi vox dei, like old Jonah, they are running to and fro vainly hunting for a house in which to preach, and doomed ever to meet with an audience incredulous of their sincerity and convinced of their unreliability by the occurrence of events that disprove the inspiration of their warnings.

DECISIONS

—OF THE—

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Delivered at Atlanta, Tuesday, July 19.

[REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION, BY N. J. HAMMOND, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.]

Bristow Bugg, plaintiff in error, vs. Walter Towner, defendant in error. Ejectment from Richmond.

BROWN, C. J.

1. Where parties are engaged in illegal transactions, whether mala prohibita, or mala in se, the Courts of this State will not interpose to grant any relief. In such cases the rule is, for the Court to leave the parties where it finds them, no matter whether the illegality of the contract appears from the plaintiff's case, or is set up by way of defense.

2. Where a deed to land was executed to the legal owner of a slave, in accordance with a contract between the slave and his master for his emancipation in this State, while such emancipation was prohibited by law, and the land was paid for with the money of the slave who was placed in possession thereof and permitted to remain there, for his own use and benefit, in violation of law, till after the abolition of slavery; the Court will not entertain a suit by the former owner of the slave, to recover the land from the possession of his former slave. As the deed was void and the transaction in violation of the laws and the public policy of the State, the Court will help neither party, but will leave them where it finds them.

3. In such case the defendant may set up the illegality of the transaction, to defeat the plaintiff's recovery, and the Court will entertain the defense, not for the defendant's sake, but upon grounds of public policy. And it was error in the Court in this case, to refuse to permit the defendant to introduce evidence to establish the illegality of the transaction, and the wilful participation of the plaintiff in it; with intent to violate the public policy of the State.

Judgment reversed.

James S. Hook, for plaintiff in error.

A. R. Wright, for defendant.

Thomas Bartlett, plaintiff in error, vs. Thomas Russell, defendant in error. Homestead claim, etc., from City Court of Augusta.

BROWN, C. J.

1. In a claim case, if the defendant in fi. fa. was in possession of the property levied upon, at the time of the levy, the burden of proof is upon the claimant, and he is entitled to the conclusion.

2. When property is set apart under the homestead and exemption laws of this State, for the benefit of a family, the head of the family may interpose a claim for their benefit, in case the property is levied upon, for his debts to which it is not subject.

While trespass is a remedy in such case, it is not the only one.

3. The schedule filed by the applicant for homestead and exemption, should describe the personal property, with reasonable certainty. But if the creditor failed to appear and object, on the ground that the schedule was insufficient, and it gives a general description of the property, and no fraud or unfairness is alleged or shown, the creditor will not be permitted to attack, the judgment of the ordinary setting it apart, collaterally, in a claim case, on the ground that the schedule was not sufficiently descriptive.

Judgement affirmed.

F. H. Miller, by W. W. Montgomery, for plaintiff in error.

A. D. Picquett, by H. W. Hilliard, for defendant.

William Spires vs. Joseph R. Walker. Motion to set aside judgment on slave notes. City Court of Augusta.

WARNER, J.

Where a judgement was sought to be enforced obtained on a note, the consideration of which was the purchase money of slaves:

Held, That in accordance with the rulings of a majority of this Court, in Shorter vs. Cobb, and White vs. Hart, that the courts of this State have no jurisdiction or authority to enforce any debt, the consideration of which was a slave or slaves.

Judgment Reversed.

Frank H. Miller, by W. W. Montgomery, for plaintiff in error.

Claiborn Snead, for defendant.

John H. Wewton vs. Joshua R. Price. Case from Washington.

WARNER, J.

When, in March, 1863, P sold to N ninety thousand pounds ginned cotton for the sum of $18,000, which was paid for in Confederate money, and P agreed, in writing, to deliver the cotton at Wootens Station on the Southwestern Railroad, within ten days after demand, during the present year, the cotton to be in about 150 bales and to be in good shipping order as to the quality of the rope, the bagging, if decayed, to be patched and put in good order up to the present time; the cotton to remain on the premises of P, the sender, on his farm in Lee county, on floor in houses, and under good shelter during the present year, if desired, free of charge. If the amount of weight of cotton in the bales now ginned should fall short of the number of pounds mentioned, it is to be made good or supplied out of the crop of 1861 of the best of that cotton remaining. N, the purchaser, takes all the risks from this date. It appears from the evidence in the record that there were only about 130 bales of the cotton packed at the time of the sale, and that the gin-house of P, containing the unginned cotton of 1861, was destroyed by fire, and the main question on the trial was, whether N, the purchaser of the cotton, by a subsequent agreement with P, had waived his right under the contract to have the balance of the cotton packed, or whether he had consented to let the cotton of the crop of 1861 remain, as it then was, unpacked in the gin-house of P, the vendor, at the risk of N, the purchaser. In regard to this main question in the case, the evidence in the record is conflicting and contradictory. The jury found a verdict in favor of the defendant, and a new trial was refused by the court below:

Held, That this Court, in accordance with its repeated rulings, will not interfere with the verdicts of juries when the evidence is conflicting or contradictory, as it is the exclusive province of the jury to judge of the credibility and weight of the evidence submitted to them, when no material principle of law has been violated by the Court in submitting the case for their consideration. In view of the facts contained in this record and the rulings of the Court in relations thereto, we find no error which will authorize the reversal of the judgment of the court below in refusing a new trial.

Judgment affirmed.

R. L. Worthen, Johnson & Montgomery, James S. Hook, for plaintiff in error.

A. R. Wright for defendant.

George T. Barnes vs. Elizabeth Washington and W. G. Whidby. Equity from Richmond.

McCAY, J.

Where an administrator was sued in a county different from that in which he resided, and he acknowledged service of the writ and filed no plea of any kind, although the suit was up on an open account over 20 years old, and judgment was taken by default, as on personal service without proof:

Held, That whatever may be the effect of such a judgment, as against the administrator personally, it does not bind the third persons or the estate sought to be charged. And the surety on the administrators bond has such an interest in setting the same aside, he may file a bill to enjoin its proceeding against the effects of the estate, and for the purpose of having it declared void as against said estate, and as against himself as the surety for the faithful administration of the same.

Judgment affirmed.

H. W, Hilliard for plaintiff in error.

McLaws & Ganahl.

Robert E. Cunningham, et al., vs. Executors of George Schley, C. C. Schley, et al. Equity from Richmond.

McCAY, J.

The act of 1847, requiring marriage settlements previously made to be recorded in the county of the husband's residence within twelve months after the passage of the act, or be void against bona fide purchasers or creditors without notice, who purchase or give credit, before the actual record, applies only in favor of bona fide creditors, who without notice give credit on the faith of the property, and does not render the settlement void in favor of a debt due by the husband, as guardian, under the appointment of the Ordinary, or under a testamentary appointment without affirmative proof that, on the testament appointment, credit was given to the husband on the faith of the property.

Declarations and entries by a person, since deceased, against his interest, and was made with a view to pending litigation on competent evidence, and this applies to a case where two sets of beneficiaries are in dispute as to whether their common trustee has invested certain trust funds in lands, taking a deed in his own name, and it is sought to prove, by the admissions of the deceased trustee, that the land was bought with the funds of one of the sets of beneficiaries. Where there is a marriage settlement to the wife for life, and at her death to her children, the trustee, who holds the title during the wife's life, holds it as trustee for the remaindermen, and if he invest the trust funds in his own name, they may follow them as in other cases of trust.

If the parties in a suit pending agree to submit both matters of law and fact to the Judge, and, after a hearing, he makes a judgment, this Court will, in a motion for new trial, make the same presumption in favor of the verdict as though the case had been tried by a jury, and if there be evidence to authorize the verdict, a new trial will not be granted, even though this Court be not satisfied that the weight of testimony is with the finding.

When the principal matter in dispute on the trial was whether certain real estate the title to which was taken in a trustee's own name had been purshased with trust funds, and the vender was accessible to both parties, and after the trial, the losing party prays for a new trial, on the ground that he has discovered, on inquiry of the vendor, new and material evidence upon the point in dispute which he did not know at the trial, and no excuse is given why application was not made to the vendor before the trial:

Held. That this is not such diligence in preparing for trial as will authorize the Court to grant a new trial, that the newly discovered evidence may be heard and considered.

When two cases were tried together, by consent, and under an order of the Court, and after verdict, a new trial is moved for in the general decree:

Held, That the Court may grant a new trial in one of the cases and refuse it in the other, the verdict not being so dependant as to make such a cause unjust to either party.

Johnson & Montgomery for plaintiff in error.

James S. Hook, W. Hope Hull for defendants.

BATHING INCIDENT.—New York has provided two floating bath-houses for the free use of the men, women and children of that city. The Times relates the following incident:

One day last week, while the women were bathing at the foot of Fifth street, a horrible yell was heard in the bath. The matron rushed in, and found a person with a masculine cast of countenance in the grasp of some eight or ten nymphs who were "sousing" her under water at an alarming rate, and at every dip they screamed out: "We'll gin it to you, you infernal scamp"—dip—"How dare you intrude your dirty carcass among us unprotected females; (another dip) "and if you stay here another minute (two dips in quick succession) we'll duck the life out of you." The unfortunate wretch was rescued from their clutches, and when the truth was ascertained it was found that the viragos had almost drowned a poor German girl under a supposition that she was a male in disguise.

☞ Governor Alcorn, of Mississippi, has vetoed the Printing bill.

This is rough on members of the Legislature who had bought up the dying papers, intending to revive them with printing pap, and consequently there is general indignation and much weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1870.

Scene—the Capitol—Hall of the House of Representatives.

Dramatis Personae—Fair feminines fluttering fans in the ladies gallery—Mixed masculines moping and mopping (with handkerchiefs) in the other galleries.

Muddled members on the floor—Many in longtailed, linen dusters, mumbling muchly, and mouthing most mercilessly—Manifold measures—Music (chin) by the Congressional brass band.

The House having talked from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M., and done nothing but pass the Indian Appropriation bill, the Speaker said: "This being the hour fixed on for adjournment, nothing remains to be done but to git up and git." Whereupon the gavel came down whack, frightening two Globe reporters into fits, and bringing every member present to his feet. Then arose cheers and yells from the floor, with a war-hoop from Senator Logan, and faint responsive outbursts from the reporters gallery, followed by a dissolving view of the tails of linen dusters, and carpet-bags filled with stationary, as the M. C's. broke for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad depot. Thus went out, like a tallow dip, leaving a bad smell of corruption and fraud behind it, the second session of the 41st Congress.

True to the last, the Senate, at the eleventh hour, passed a railroad land-grabing bill, and the House, by resorting to filibustering, stand off action on the President's message. We should doubtless have had to endure Congress for several days longer had not the majority of Congressmen purchased their railroad tickets for last evening. As it was, they had a narrow escape from being detained by a Presidential proclamation. The President was determined that Congress should not adjourn without passing the Indian Appropriation bill, and he was at the capitol yesterday with a proclamation in his pocket calling an extra session, which would have been issued had not the bill been squeezed through in time.

SCENES AT THE CAPITOL.

The halls, corridors and lobbies of the capitol were crowded yesterday by a throng of perspiring and pertinacious persons, black, white and chocolate-colored, men, women, and children. The lobbyists were "in at the death," in force. On every other face was depicted the expressions of deep despair, or unutterable anxiety. The Senate being in executive session the greater portion of the day, the widest field for surmize was opened to the unintiated; on which they made frequent and futile forays. Appointees and their friends were looking for confirmation; and others were looking after matters and measures known only to themselves. In rear of the Senate Chamber, in the President's room, an impromptu cabinet meeting was in session; and General Porter, A. D. C., and P. S., was kept trotting to and fro, carrying formidable looking envelopes, containing Presidential "messages in writing." Altogether, as the Star says, "every nook and corner of the capitol building to-day presented an appearence more like the excitement of the old impeachment days than at any time since that memorable occasion."

THE WAR IN EUROPE

is, of course, much discussed here. The administration is understood to have taken sides with Prussia. Indeed, Grant's message to Congress yesterday is considered by General Banks to show that unmistakably. The General thinks a great mistake has been made in thus lending moral support to the side which is sure to be vanquished. He entertains no doubt whatever of the success of France, and thinks the administration has offended the Emperor most unwisely. Some talk of France stepping in and gobbling up Cuba under our very noses, but that is hardly probable.

MR. H. P. FARROW

is out with a letter addressed to the Georgia Legislature, in which he takes strong ground against perpetuation, and indulges generally in anti-Bullock sentiments. The letter created much surprise here, and news of its reception in Georgia is looked for with interest. After this no one would be astonished were Blodgett to jump out of the traces and join Bard. ARGUS.

What is His Name?

In the report published in the Washington Globe of the debates in the House of Representatives on the Fifteenth Amendment Enforcement bill, Mr. Potter of New York, is represented as having thus spoken of a certain United States District Judge in a Southern State:

"Why, sir, there is a certain malignity about giving to the District Courts of the United States jurisdiction over the offenses created by this bill. These are not courts of general jurisdiction. Their original jurisdiction is that of admirality; but as regards the consideration and the trial of offenses upon land, the natural and proper tribunals—where the Federal courts have jurisdiction at all—would be the Circuit Courts. Why is jurisdiction of those offenses given to the District Courts? Only last year, in addition to the Justices of the Supreme Court, a special Justice for each circuit was appointed, so that all business before those courts might be speedily disposed of. Why, then, was the trial of the offenses declared by this bill committed to the District Courts unless because it was believed the District Judges would be more pliant to those in power, and more partisan in their administration of this law?

"We have heard much, sir, of these United States District Judges of the South. It is historical, I believe, that one of them once ordered some thousands of golden sovereigns to be sold as perishable property, and that another directed a railway some fifty miles long to be sold on the same pretense, as if it had been a load of bananas. Yet, to these Judges the trial of the offenses declared by this law is committed, with the most extraordinary limits of discretion, ranging from a paltry fine to a ten years' imprisonment; so that for a political friend to be found guilty might be venal, and for a political opponent to be never so unjustly convicted might be almost death."

☞ We would prefer, when we are laid under the ground, that it be said to our children that we served a term in the Penitentiary, to having it thrown up to them that their "daddy" was a member of the Georgia Legislature from 1869 to 1870. We think it would speak far better for us and them.—Early County News.

☞ Mr. Dan Robinson, of Jackson, Michigan, has sold his celebrated horse, Honesty, for $4,000 to Robert Johnson, of Louisville, Kentucky. The horse was sold during a race in which he made 2:35, never before having beaten 2:42 in public, although in private he had made 2:32. The gentleman was so delighted with the horse that he bought him before the race was completed.

☞ Red Cloud, when allowed to look upon the piles of gold in the United States treasury, was rude enough to Boutwell to remark that he did not like the looks of the gold as well as he did those female clerks in the department. The savage was at once taken into open air.

☞ In Provincetown, Massachusetts, on the Fourth of July, an old hen attacked a torpedo, and, by persistent pecking, caused it to explode and blew her own head off.

☞ A Scuppernong vine, 300 years old, is now growing on Roanoke Island, North Carolina, which is said to have yielded last year 46 barrels of wine.

☞ A writer in the Country Gentleman recommends pulverized charcoal in corn meal, wet, for chicken cholera.

☞ The president of an Ohio university, it is said, has been compelled to request the young lady students not to whistle in the halls.

☞ Could it have been that "Hogg's Tales" were written with a Hogg pen?

It is understood that on returning, the French Minister Berthmay and Colonel Bonaparte will be passengers on the Lafayette.

RALEIGH, July 19.—The counsel for citizens arrested in Allamance county by Kirk, who, by order of Governor Holden refuses to regard writs of habeas corpus, argued the matter before the Chief Justice to-day. The issue involved seems to be whether an attachment shall be issued against the Governor or Kirk. The Governor's counsel closes argument to-morrow morning. Feeling is most intense on the subject, and the people await with the deepest anxiety the decision of the Chief Justice.

News received here this evening states that Graham, the county seat of Allamance county, has been placed under martial law by Kirk. The court-house was seized and the whole town strictly guarded.

A military commission has been organized, consisting mainly of Kirk and his officers to try citizens now under arrest.

Additional news has been received saying that Honorable John Kerr, Honorable L. P. Hill, Sheriff Griffitt and several other prominent citizens of Caswell county were arrested at Yanceyville yesterday, by Kirk. The Congressional candidates in that district were speaking in the court house when Kirk surrounded it with soldiers and made the arrests. No intelligence of the slightest resistence to the laws in that or in any other part of the State has been received.

RICHMOND, July 19.—Captain W. F. Hayward, proprietor of the hotel at Chester, a summer retreat on the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, this P.M. shot and mortally wounded his son-in-law, B. F. Lindsay, for the seduction of his (Hayward's) daughter. Hayward also is proprietor of the Dime hotel in this city, and well known and much respected. He called Lindsay into a room of the hotel, and taxed him with his crime. Lindsay, it is said, confessed the crime, and professed himself willing to receive such punishment as he merited, and Haygood then commenced firing on him, wounding him in the abdomen and thigh.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 19.—The Post is skeptical about touching news received from France and Prussia.

It ascribes the bulk of the dispatches to speculations.

PARIS, July 19.—The Journal Official announces that the Emperor has decided not to receive either in Imperial quarters or general officers, any volunteer or foreign officer, or any one not belonging to the French army.

Thiers published, this morning, an indignant denial of having received, as stated by Figoro, a letter from the King of Prussia, thanking him for his speech against war.

When the Emperor emitted from the Tuilleries to-day to return to St. Cloud, he was loudly cheered by the people.

BERLIN, July 19.—Last evening King William made a speech to a great crowd of the people of this city who came to congratulate him. He said he was not responsible for the war which had just broken out. He might personally be passive under the outrage, but Germany, even from beyond the seas had spoken. Sacrifices were sure; Prussia had been spoiled by her rapid victories in two wars, and perhaps a worse fate awaited her now. He, however, knew what to hope for from a good army, and people. The French proclamation for the purpose of exciting the people to revolt had been distributed in Hanover.

La Liberte publishes a statement to the effect that General Changanier will probably be appointed minister of war, vice Leboeuf, who takes command in full.

PARIS, July 19.—Not even a skirmish has occurred.

Hessee Darmstadt has withdrew her agent from Paris.

There is nothing certain about the departure of the Emperor for the seat of war. He is not likely to set out for the front until everything is ready there for active service.

Several Prussian agents in this city, who were suspected of plotting and distributing money, were arrested.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, July 19.—The workingmen made a demonstration yesterday. They marched through the streets bearing banners on which was written "The people are dying of hunger." In front of the ministry, interior and other public departments, they halted and demanded employment. Their conduct was orderly and the manifestations ended without disturbance.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—Advices from the agricultural districts of Northern and Central Russia show that the crops are looking well and promise a yield above the average.

PARIS, July 19.—In the High Court of Justice, at Blois, yesterday, at the commencement of the proceedings, Arago rose and moved that in view of the approach of war and consequent agitation of the country, the trial of persons accused of conspiracy, be postponed.

The Court, after consideration, denied the motion, and the trial proceeded.

Baron Rothschild, who was drawn as a member of the Jury of the High Court, did not attend. He was fined 5,000 francs.

Public and private subscriptions to the various charitable projects incident to war are very liberal in all parts of the country. Duke de Montemant has given one hundred thousand francs. Many persons agreed to pay certain sums daily during the war, and others agreed to pay double taxes. Many manufacturers continue the wages of their employees who choose to enlist as soldiers. A large number of the constituents of Thiers, who voted for him at the last election, demand his retirement from the Corps Legislatif on the ground that he has outraged the public sentiment of the country by his recent speech against the war. Several deputies to the Corps Legislatif seek commissions in the army.

SIXTY BUILDING LOTS IN BELLWOOD SETTLEMENT.

Wednesday Afternoon, 4 O'clock, 20th July, 1870.

BY consulting the large maps at our office, the reader will receive reliable information as to the location of this valuable property. These lands have advanced in value since 1860, at least ten hundred per cent., and their near proximity to the Western and Atlantic Railroad, Bellwood Depot, the Rolling Mills, Fair Grounds, Oglethorpe Park, the extensive Mill for the manufacture of Fertilizers, and, above all the heavy tide of settlement of substantial mechanics, railroad employees, and other good citizens who are daily seeking residences in this direction, will furnish a ready market for every building lot that may be offered for sale, at constantly advancing prices; affording a guarantee to speculators of a larger profit on investments than could be realized in perhaps any other location. The sale of property will be made without any reservation or by-bidding, and it is our purpose to sell the whole sixty lots with all possible rapidity. A free train will leave the crossing opposite the National Hotel, at half-past three o'clock, this afternoon, 20th July. The usual refreshments will be provided.

Terms of sale: One-third cash, balance in thirty, sixty and ninety days, with interest.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 22, 18[illegible].

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D.

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30, 18[illegible].

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON, St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 18[illegible], by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. B. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhoea and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. It cured him. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JE. JOHNSON

Testimony of Medical Men.

STONEY POINT, White Co., Ark., May 30, 18[illegible].

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Rickets & Neely.

HON. NELSON TIFT, of Albany, honored our sanctum with his presence yesterday evening.

MAJOR W. B. BACON, we learn, died at Greensboro' on the 17th instant, of congestion of the lungs.

WE were pleased to see John H. James, Esq., out on the streets yesterday, restored to health.

WE regret to learn of the indisposition of B. E. Crane, one of the live merchants of ... and hope that his genial phiz will soon ... Alabama street again.

...TOR yesterday gave encouraging ... from crops throughout the State. The ...pin, persimmon, blackberry, gopher, alli... and other crops, he said, were a decided ...ess.

A FRIEND writing from Oxford, in speaking of the alumni address by Rev W. H. Potter, characterizes it as "chaste, practical and strong" We never knew him to make any other sort.

THE European war seems to be exciting considerable interest here, judging from the number of imitators we hear of—possibly the result of the outgushing abundance of ardent spirits!

MESSRS WALLACE & FOWLER will sell sixty building lots in the Bellwood settlement at 3-30 o'clock this afternoon. A free passenger train will leave the Whitehall crossing near the National Hotel at the hour named.

THE Savannah bar is ably represented here. General Henry R. Jackson, Messrs Bassinger, Guerard and Falligant are here attending the Supreme Court, and with Hon. E. A. Nisbet, the Christian and jurist, of Macon, are stopping at Mrs. Overby's.

THE SENATE yesterday consumed the morning in discussing the "relief measures" If they would afford "relief" to the people beyond "measure," they would adjourn and go home. The per diem is injuring the people worse than their debts.

WE are in receipt of the quarterly report of Atlanta Typographical Union, No. 48, which is gotten up in the highest style of the art, at the Franklin Printing House. The Union has eighty-two active members and four honorary members.

JOHN KEELY is now offering great bargains in summer dress goods, at his store corner of Whitehall and Hunter streets. We invite the attention of the ladies specially to the fact that Keely has a large stock of superior goods, and will close them out at low figures. Give Captain Keely a call. Don't say by-and-by, but go and buy.

THE live, energetic and thorough going agent of the "Short Line" in this city, Major W. C. Lewis has resigned his position, and his resignation, we learn, has been accepted with regret by the line. He made a prompt and efficient agent, and the Road was fortunate in having his services. Of course Major Lewis will not be allowed to remain idle. Some of these Railroads will see the "point" and secure him.

YESTERDAY, in the Senate, while Senator Brock was advocating relief, he urged that the committee should be equally divided among those who favored and those who opposed relief. Senator Speer asked him how he could divide a committee of five equally. Senator Brock retorted by saying that he would put Senator Speer on the committee to constitute the half. This establishes Mr. Brock's claim as a wit, for it was a ten-strike.

THERE was a sound of revelry last night at the Skating Rink, as the Republicans gathered to the sound of the "Marseilles," (by the way the band played it extraordinarily well,) and soon indulged in magnificent and fancy skating. They skated in "rings," prolonging their whirls indefinitely until their supports gave way. It was rare sport indeed.

THE ATLANTA INTELLIGENCER, of yesterday, informs its readers that Hon. Foster Blodgett has returned from Washington city, and visited the sanctum of the Intelligencer. It says editorially that the election question this fall is one which the Legislature will determine. The Constitution settles the question, and the election will be held.

THE Fulton County Agricultural Society will meet on Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the Agricultural Warehouse of Sam. A. Echols, on Broad street, to elect delegates to the State Agricultural Convention. It is expected that a number of members will be present with specimens of fruits, vegetables, etc., for exhibition on that occasion.

We understand, at every meeting, this feature will hereafter be adopted, and that there will be discussions upon the fruits, etc., and their culture best adapted to this locality.

MR. EDITOR: There appears to be fears upon the part of some citizens as to the course the authorities of the city should take with regard to Water Works.

In my judgment, I would say that the matter is in very competent hands, and under the authority cannot assume unusual responsibilities without reporting the same to the City Council.

The resolution of Alderman Murphy authorized a committee of the City Council to investigate the subject, and only to incur such expense as was absolutely necessary.

An enterprise of such magnitude requires time for thorough investigation. No doubt when the report is made the subject will be properly laid before the tax-payers in an intellectual form; and as the work cannot be commenced without authority of law, and as no authority now exists, a short delay can neither be damaging, dangerous or injurious to the people. CITIZEN.

SUPREME COURT—Evening Session.—ATLANTA, GA., July 19, 1870—No. 3 was dismissed because not sent up in time. It is Burton J. McMichael vs. Ada C. White, executrix. Trover from Jones.

Geo. T. Bartlett, by John Rutherford, for plaintiff in error.

W. A. Lofton, for defendant.

No. 4 is James F. Hanson vs. Robert Crawley. Complaint from Morgan.

Billups & Robertson, for plaintiff in error.

A. G. Foster, for defendant.

At the conclusion of that case, the Court adjourned till 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

BLAIR never uttered a more pungent truth than when he declared "Death's shafts fly thick! Here falls the village swain and there his pampered lord! The cup goes round and who so artful as to put it by!" The sad intelligence reached this city yesterday morning that Mrs. Jane C. Howard, the wife of our esteemed friend Colonel Thomas C. Howard, died very suddenly on the night previous, at Kirkwood, of disease of the heart. It thrilled every heart with the most poignant grief to hear of the death of one in the prime of life, so loved and esteemed, cut off. The blow came like a thunder-peal from a clear sky, and crushed all by its suddenness. While, from the nature of the disease, it was expected, yet her friends vainly imagined that to one of her mould death would come gently as light winds wandering through groves of bloom detach the delicate blossoms from the tree.

Mrs. Howard was a lady whose soul was in her home and in the discharge of all those quiet virtues of which home is the center. Her husband was to her what her father was—the object of all her care, solicitude and affection. She sympathized with his sorrows, shared his pleasures and diverted his fatigue. Ah! she was the light and joy of that household.

The writer pays this tribute to the memory of one he was proud to esteem as a friend. To the grief-stricken husband, bowed beneath the burden of his sad affliction and his motherless children, he extends his sympathy, and drops with them tears of regret at her tomb; yet he rejoices with them as not without hope, that she has exchanged earth for heaven—mortality for immortality.

Mrs. Howard was consigned to her last resting-place in the cemetery yesterday evening, attended by a large cortege. He, who dryeth the mourner's tears will pour the balm of consolation into the bleeding hearts of her relatives and loved ones.

"He will heal the broken heart,
Which, like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe."

THE attention of the readers is respectfully called to the advertisement of Bradfield & Co., in another column.

These gentlemen have six great and valuable remedies, viz: Bradfields Female Regulator; Dr. Prophitt's celebrated Liver Medicine; Prophitt's Dysentery Cordial; Prophitt's Pain Kill It; Prophitt's Ague Pills; and Prophitt's Antibillious Pills, all of which are purely vegetable—not a mineral substance in one of them.

They are all preparations for special diseases, and have been used for years; and the testimonials for each article is of the highest character, as regards their efficiency and the public need have no fear of being humbugged by them.

Bradfield's Female Regulator and Prophitt's celebrated Liver Midicine has undoubtedly been of more benefit to suffering humanity than any other two remedies of their age, and are justly more popular. july20-dtf READER, if you have a sick Horse do not dose him with "Condition Powders" containing antimony, which is just as useless, and injurious to him as is the constantly swallowing of poisonous compounds to the human system. It is more humane to knock a horse on the head at once than to kill him by inches through the action of antimony, which accumulates in the system, and thus sooner or later produce death by antimonial poisoning. Remember reader there is no antimony, nor any other poison in the "Equine Condition Powders." Their action under all circumstances, is physiological; therefore they can be safely used in all forms of disease (whether acute or chronic) with decided benefit to afflicted animals.

THE BLOOD IN SUMMER.—The blood deteriorates in hot weather. Profuse perspiration deprives it of a portion of its nourishing and reproductive properties. Consequently, in summer, the flesh loses in some degree its firmness, the muscles lack their usual elasticity and vigor, and the weight of the body diminishes. These are clear indications that the ordinary supply of the life-sustaining principle afforded by the food we eat, is not sufficient to meet the requirements of the system under a high temperature. There is another reason for this, besides the direct influence of the heat, viz: the loss of appetite and the weakening of the digestive powers which it occasions. Under these circumstances a wholesome invigorant is evidently needed, and the best and safest is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This admirable vegetable tonic and alterative, acts favorably upon the system in several ways. It increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thereby inclining the stomach to receive, and enabling it to assimilate a due amount of nourishment. It also tones the relaxed secretive organs and the bowels. Under its operation the process of emaciation, occasioned by the drain through the pores, is arrested, the whole frame refreshed and invigorated, and the spirits exhilarated. The dyspeptic, the billious, the nervous, the debilitated, scarcely need to be told that it is precisely the stimulant and corrective they ought to take at this season. Thousands of them know the fact by experience. Nothing in the pharmacopæia (or out of it) will supply its place—least of all the trashy local nostrums which some unscrupulous dealers would be glad, for the benefit of their own pockets, to peddle out in its stead. july19-deod1w&w1t june21-deod4waw4t.

IF the testimony of aged persons who have tested the vivifying and solacing properties of LIPPMANN'S GREAT German Bitters' is worthy of credence; they are decidedly preferable to any of the unmedicated stimulants or combinations of drugs and alcohol, ordinarily prescribed to cheer the spirits and strengthen the system of persons of an advanced age. These bitters produce no unnatural excitement, and these effects are at once soothing and strengthening, and they counteract to a great degree the depressing influence which the decay of the bodily energies has upon the animal spirits; it is, therefore, that it is acknowledged universally, that Lippman's Bitters are cordial for the aged. july19-deod1w&w1t

CHEAP LUXURIES FOR THE PEOPLE.—Opportunely, at the time when the cost of living is enormous, a new article appears in the market, affording an unprecedented amount of delicious and wholesome aliment, almost for a song. We refer to the patent SEA MOSS FARINE, which is now, by virtue of its extraordinary cheapness, taking the place of all the gelatinous articles of food manufactured from maize and grain. The raw material of this nutritious and fattening agent is the free gift of nature: a marine moss growing in prodigious quantities on the Irish coast, and known as Carrageen. Cleansed, desiccated, concentrated and reduced to powder by a patent process, this wonderful plant yields a larger quantity of pure, palatable aliment in proportion to its weight, than any substance produced from the great agricultural staples. Artistic cooks pronounce it the finest article for Custards, Puddings, Creams, Soups, Sauces, etc., that has been discovered, and the Sea Moss Farine Company, of New York, who own the patent, find it all they can do to keep pace with the demands for the new staff of life.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

LOOK AT THE RUINS.—Aye, look at the ruins of what once were magnificent sets of teeth, to be seen everywhere in society. Look at them, and ask yourself if it is not marvelous that such destruction is permitted, when, by simply using Sozodont, any teeth, however fragile, may be preserved from decay or blemish as long as life lasts?

WALTHAM WATCHES!

THE extensive use of these Watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks:

American Watch Co	Waltham, Mass.
Am'n Watch Co	Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co., Crescent St.	Waltham, Mass.
Appleton, Tracy & Co	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery	Waltham, Mass.
Home Watch Co	Boston, Mass.

For sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

TRADE MARK

ARGYLE BITTERS.

THE superiority of the above named article over any other Bitters is now admited in every instance where a comparison has been made. The Proprietors most respectfully informs the public that the high reputation they have so justly acquired has been on their intrinsic merits alone. The ingredients used, in point of purity, excellence and medicinal qualities can not be surpassed, imparting a richness and delicacy of flavor heretofore unequaled by any combination of medicines having any claim for the relief of the following complaints, for which the

are especially recommended, viz:

Dyspepsia, Indigestion,
Diseases of the Stomach,
Nervousness, Jaundice,
Billious Complaints,
Costiveness, Cramps,
Flatulency, Griping Pains,
Heartburn, Liver Complaint,
Loss of Appetite,
Lowness of Spirits or Melancholy,
Pains in the Side or Back,
Sick and Nervous Headache,
Etc., Etc.

All the virtues of the true CALISAYA BARK are to be found in the ARGYLE BITTERS, making them the best Appetizer and gentle Tonic in all cases of General Debility and Derangement of the Stomach and Digestive Organs, that it is possible to produce.

Being mild in effect and pleasant to the taste, they are especially recommended to delicate females as a gentle soothing and invigorating tonic

The following important Certificate from Dr. I. L. CRAWCOUR, an eminent Chemist and Physician of this city, speaks so favorably of the Argyle Bitters, we deem it superfluous to add anything further:

261 CAMP STREET, NEW ORLEANS,
September 1, 1869.

Messrs. Wheelock, Finlay & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—I have carefully examined your Argyle Bitters, and from my knowledge of their ingredients can safely recommend them as a good and reliable tonic and especially as a corrective of that morbid desire which so frequently affects those addicted to the use of ardent spirits. The chief ingredients being the best Calisaya Bark, renders them peculiarly fitted for the use of those residing in malarious districts, as they will not only act as a preventive against intermittent disease, but in a large number of cases may cure it when it has made its appearance.

THE ROSE OF SHARON.

There is a Rose who e beauties grace
The garden where it grows;
In lowly hearts it finds a place—
'Tis Sharon's lovely Rose.

Unchanged by time, it never dies,
Its beauties ne'er depart;
And not a thorn this Rose supplies
To pierce its home, the heart.

Though in this wilderness forlorn
This lovely Rose is found.
Before the morning stars were born
It bloomed on heavenly ground.

In regions parched by burning heat,
Or chilled by polar snows,
The Rose of Sharon we may meet—
For Jesus is that Rose.

Letter from Fairburn.

FAIRBURN, GA., July 16th, 1870.

Editors Constitution: You feel interested in the political, domestic and educational welfare of our State. Much more so should you feel an interest in the progress of the suburbs of your city (I believe you claim us here at Fairburn as living in the suburbs of Atlanta). Our little town was all aglow yesterday. Men, women, and children were all happy enjoying the commencement exercises of our Fairburn High School. It was a rich treat to us all. We have a splendid school here, and such boys and girls. Atlanta may well be proud to claim us as her suburbs! It is said that genius displays itself periodically. Since the time where the "memory of man runneth not to the contrary" there has been an age of genius, where art, poetry, eloquence, etc., flourished, followed by an age of mental dearth. In the long chain which extends back to the beginning of our history, the links are alternately dark and golden. The ancient world had its periods of greatness. Rome had her warriors and her orators; Greece her statesmen, her philosophers, her sculptors and her poets. Then came the dark ages. The modern world has been alternating and vibrating between greatness and mental lethargy. Especially has this been the case in regard to eloquence. France has had her Richelieus, her Dantons, and her Mirabeaus; England her Pitts, her Fox, and her Burks; America her Clays, Websters and her Calhouns. Since those days all have felt in great need of orators and statesmen. Is not another day of genius about to break upon us? I think so, and why do I think so? Because our school boys, and our young men, both in the colleges and those who have graduating within the last few years, show an unusual and an astonishing capacity for understanding and appreciating hard common sense ideas. They have the best judgment, the most correct notions, and the soundest principles of action, yet shown in men and boys of their age. I have seen this evinced in all the school exhibitions and examinations throughout the country; and it is really gratifying to an old man, as he looks through the dim vista of the future, to see our sons and our young men as they are rising the hill-top of their manhood, to show, by unmistakable evidences, that when the heads, which for so many years have directed the national, political and domestic welfare of the country, shall have passed and gone, their places will be supplied by manhood equal to the task.

I can't say when I have witnessed anything as pleasing as the exhibition of our High School. And I should do great injustice to your citizens, did I not express to them my gratitude for furnishing us with such an orator for the occasion as Mr. Sidney Dell—yes, I really felt thankful that I was permitted to hear from one so young such burning words of eloquence, such beautiful ideas, such flowing language, and above all, such words of advice put forth in such attractive sentences as recalled the days when the great speakers of Georgia thrilled the land with their eloquence. His style was dignified and impressive. He made you feel every word he said—he seemed to force his ideas and his thoughts into your mind, and in spite of yourself make you see as he did, and think as he did. His subject was well suited to the occasion: "Learning, its pursuits, its uses, and its pleasures." The leading points in the subject, though having been discussed by many, were handled in a manner different from anything I have yet seen or heard. The ground was broad, but the speaker covered it well; he plowed deep, and the rising generation of Fairburn may yet reap a rich harvest from the seed of learning sown in their young minds by the orator of the day. I wish I had time to go into detail and tell of the beautiful metaphors, the illustrative figures, etc., that beautified the speech and electrified the crowded house, who showed their appreciation by marked attention and prolonged applause.

FAIRBURN.

Examination of Conyer's High School.

CONYERS, July 15th, 1870.

Editors Atlanta Constitution: The Annual exercises of Professor Gwinn's High School, took placeon the 12th, 13th and 14th instants. It was my pleasure to be present during the entire examination, and I assure you it was quite a treat as well as a surprise, for I had imagined that it would only be as others that I had been attending; but let me assure you that it surpassed anything of the kind, in point of merit, that I have witnessed. In the various branches, confined to English particularly, the course of instruction seemed perfect. I have never heard more prompt and satisfactory answers given to all questions asked, or more expertness in solving the intricate problems, in Latin and Greek. I listened to as good recitations as I ever did. In declamation, the young men acquitted themselves with honor to themselves and teachers, and gladdening the hearts of their parents, and calling forth continuous applause from the audience, which was both large and intelligent. The school is in a flourishing condition, located in a prosperous go a-head village, that is populated with an intelligent hospitable and energetic people.

For pure water, salubrious climate, and good morals, I know of no point in Georgia possessing superior advantages to invite the student, and I commend it to a generous public. Professor Guinn is a model disciplinarian, possessing all the requisites of a successful instructor and gentleman. Associated with him is a gentleman of moral and intellectual worth seldom surpassed, Rev. Thomas B. Cooper.

I see that your paper is taken extensively at this point, which speaks well for the taste and intelligence, as well as the morals of the community.

I would like to speak personally of some of the young men's efforts, but knowing how sensitive the theme, will refrain, and will only say all did well and some remarkably well. The young ladies also read admirably, evincing refined taste and cultivated intellects in their selection of subjects; in fact the entire exercises were a success, a perfect literary feast.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE!

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, bread, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of she organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.

ROSADALIS!

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.

COCO OR NUT GRASS,

ON KENNEY'S PLAN, can be subdued and finally exterminated, by agricultural process, in the hands of anybody who can plow and hoe properly.

☞ Whatever can be subdued—especially that which is powerless to resist—can be exterminated by the same means its subjugation is effected, if persisted in.

☞ Photograph of self, implement, and grass sent for $2, if desired.

☞ The money will be returned, with interest, if the operation on my plan proves a failure.

Remit by P. O. Order, Registered Letter or Express, plainly writing addresses—by Express, pre-paid, is the best way.
I. M. KENNEY, Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, GA., June 15, 1870.

We, the undersigned, have witnessed the operations of Mr. I. M. KENNEY, for subduing Coco or Nut Grass, and believe that his plan will enable the farmer to cultivate land infested with this pest much more easily than by any mode hitherto adopted, or that has come within in our observation.

Mr. Kenney conscientiously believes all that he says about it, but we are not yet satisfied that he can exterminate the grass, because sufficient time has not been allowed us to prove it; but we would recommend all to immediately apply for the plan, believing that it is worth more than the cost.

IS A RECENT IMPROVEMENT.
Replaces the use of the Bitter Sulphate Quinine, with which all are familiar.
Dose for dose, it is WARRANTED
Fully Equal in Every Way to Bitter Quinine,
And like it, is the one
Great, Positive, and Unfailing CURE
FOR ALL DISEASES OF MALARIOUS ORIGIN.
Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague.
And the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE
is made solely from PERUVIAN BARK (so is Bitter Quinine,) therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral Poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE
acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE
is in two forms—in Powder, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and Fluid, for use in the family and for the general public.

We will deliver on the car, by the car load, SEWANEE COAL, at the following prices:

Lump Coal	26	cents per bushel
